Bio

Pastry Chef Sarah Pineda was born and raised in Southern California. She found her love of cooking in her youth, where she would spend weekends baking up a storm for her friends and family. She recalls that it always brought her the most joy to watch someone fall in love with her creations. When she graduated highschool she went off to the Art Institute of Santa Monica where she learned the fundamentals of baking and pastry. Working towards a career she finally landed a job with Michelin star Chef April Bloomfield at The Hearth and Hound in Hollywood, California. She quickly moved on to other kitchens in Los Angeles, taking on Sous Chef positions for restaurants in Westwood and Echo park; eventually making her way to Ashland, Oregon with her family and husband Michael Bryant. The two are now working at Alchemy and Chateaubriand 36. Bryant as the Executive Chef. Pineda as the Pastry Chef.
